Customers consuming food or drink on premises must be seated.

Option #1: Functioning bar work areas with no bar seating

- In addition to these highlighted standards, bars and bar operations must follow the Phase III restaurant guidance available at www.reopeningri.com.
- Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.
- Congregating or mingling is not allowed.
- No ordering or picking up at the bar by customers.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

- It is required that establishments retain contact information of one member of each party for 30 days for the purposes of contact tracing.
- Bar area is roped off or otherwise separated from the rest of the establishment.
- No service to customers from staff behind the bar.
- Self-service seating is prohibited; reservations encouraged but not required.
- No bar seating.
- Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.
- Congregating or mingling is not allowed.
- No ordering or picking up at the bar by customers.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

- It is required that establishments retain contact information of one member of each party for 30 days for the purposes of contact tracing.
- Bar area is roped off or otherwise separated from the rest of the establishment.
- No service to customers from staff behind the bar.
- Self-service seating is prohibited; reservations encouraged but not required.
- No bar seating.
- Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.
- Congregating or mingling is not allowed.
- No ordering or picking up at the bar by customers.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

- Indoor entertainment (such as live performances, arcade games, and pool tables) is allowed with restrictions.
- Performers separated from customers by 14 feet; no mingling/congregating by customers.
- Tables must be spaced eight feet from table edge to table edge or to allow six feet spacing between seated parties, unless there is a physical barrier.
- Customers consuming food or drink on premises must be seated.
REOPENING RI

Bar Operations: Phase III Guidance

Option #2: Bar seating with no functioning bar work areas

- In addition to these highlighted standards, bars and bar operations must follow the Phase III restaurant guidance available at www.reopeningri.com.
- Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.
- Congregating or mingling is not allowed.
- No ordering or picking up at the bar by standing customers.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

- No functioning bar work areas (e.g. drink making stations, dishwashing stations, glassware storage).
- Parties seated at the bar must be 6' from other parties or separated by a physical, nonporous barrier (e.g. plexiglass).
- No staff are permitted to work behind the bar.
- Self-service seating is prohibited; reservations encouraged but not required.
- It is required for patrons to wear masks when not seated at tables.
- It is required that establishments retain contact information of one member of each party for 30 days for the purposes of contact tracing.
- Indoor entertainment (such as live performances, arcade games, and pool tables) is allowed with restrictions.
- Performers separated from customers by 14 feet; no mingling/congregating by customers.
- Customers consuming food or drink on premises must be seated.
- Tables must be spaced eight feet from table edge to table edge or to allow six feet spacing between seated parties, unless there is a physical barrier.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.
REOPENING RI

Bar Operations: Phase III Guidance

Option #3: Functioning bar work areas and bar seating with a physical barrier

- In addition to these highlighted standards, bars and bar operations must follow the Phase III restaurant guidance available at www.reopeningri.com.
- Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.
- Congregating or mingling is not allowed.
- No ordering or picking up at the bar by standing customers.
- Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

Customers consuming food or drink on premises must be seated.

An establishment can have functioning bar work areas and bar seating, providing that there is a physical, continuous, nonporous barrier (e.g. plexiglass) of appropriate height installed between work areas and customers.

Self-service seating is prohibited; reservations encouraged but not required.

It is required that establishments retain contact information of one member of each party for 30 days for the purposes of contact tracing.

It is required for patrons to wear masks when not seated at tables.

Standing service is not allowed. Seated service only.

Congregating or mingling is not allowed.

No ordering or picking up at the bar by standing customers.

Indoor dining capacity is limited to 66% of regular seating capacity.

Performer separated from customers by 14 feet; no mingling/congregating by customers.

Indoor entertainment (such as live performances, arcade games, and pool tables) is allowed with restrictions.

Tables must be spaced eight feet from table edge to table edge or to allow six feet spacing between seated parties, unless there is a physical barrier.

Customers consuming food or drink on premises must be seated.